COTTON STATEMENT. MEMPHIS, September 12, 1988, J

Exported this week....

The first bale of new cotton from "Old Har-deman," Tennessee, was received yesterday by Guy, McClellan, & Co. It was raised by J. H. Cielland, Esq., near Saulsbury, classed Middling and sold for twenty-five cents. The newspaper offices were ablaze with light, but by far the most elaborate display was made by the APPEAL, which, in connection with rockets, Roman candles and blue lights, illuminated windows, and the star spangied banner, etc., had a large transparency inscribed with the names of Seymour and Blair upon the roof of the composing room.

The head of the Immense crowd arrived at the speaker's stand, upon the bluff, while the end of the procession had yet some three miles to march. Those who felt so disposed, awaited to hear the speeches which were expected, but by far the greater number retired to their how eloquent, facts, no matter how level and the speaker's and support the suppose of the country of the control of the composing room.
